

Here is some exciting news about a phenomenal group of comics from The Netherlands who are coming to Bath Fringe Festival on Thursday 31st May

AMSTERDAM UNDERGROUND COMEDY COLLECTIVE

For the last 15 years, comedian collective Comedytrain has been responsible for every major talent in Holland. The collective has its own comedy club Toomler in Amsterdam – world famous in Holland and a favourite place of top class comedians the world over.

The best of the Comedytrain comedians will be performing at this year's Edinburgh and Bath Fringe Festivals. (Don't worry, it's in English!)

Hans Teeuwen (www.hansteeuwen.net)

Arguably the most influential comedian Holland has ever seen, Hans has single-handedly changed the whole comedy scene in Holland, destroying the last remaining taboos in the process. Absurdist, very fast and not for the easily offended.

Theo Maassen

Theo manages to hit important themes through a bombardment of jokes and is also famous in Holland for his acting. A massive talent that is looking for new challenges.

Hans Sibbel

(www.comedytrain.nl, www.harrykies.nl)

Highly energetic comedian who has had his own New Years Eve television show for the last 4 years.

Ronald Goedemondt

Ronald is stand-up comedy. Childishly naïve, shockingly honest and most of all hilarious. His impersonations spot on, his English impeccable.

Micha Wertheim

Highly intelligent, humbly intelligent, maybe even too intelligent, but so funny! From his pedestal of knowledge and IQ he overlooks the world and gives you insights you would never have dreamed to think of yourself.

Cynical, curious, on the edge and, yes, intelligent.
